

Kentucky Moving Van options:

- Custom lengths and styles, including pallet door configurations
- 96" or 102" width
- Longer 72" attic length
- Taller or shorter inside heights
- Moving, adding, or subtracting side doors
- Roll up rear door ILO swing open
- 12" floor sill spacing ILO 16" spacing
- 16" side post spacing ILO 24" spacing
- Stainless steel bright finish front corner radius inserts
- White vinyl or natural finish plywood ILO one piece white plywood interior
- Horizontal track in front and/or side walls
- 1 3/8" Oak flooring ILO 1 1/8" Oak
- Steel scuff strips/liner on sides or front wall
- Threshold plate recessed in rear, smooth steel or diamond plate, 18" or 24"
- Additional marker lights on outside rails
- Combination turn/marker lights on lower rail
- Wind Deflector
- Oversized skirt packages for better aerodynamics
- Additional and/or custom sized and styled walkboard racks
- Kentucky style Storage/Tool Box mounted under body, forward of rear axle
- Stainless steel and anodized aluminum, sliding pipe loading platform at rear
- U steps mounted under side doors
- Grab handles on side and/or rear doors
- Sleeper compartment built into body behind cab
- Custom painting and decaling or Van Line approved paint and decal install
- Lift Gates from Palfinger, Waltco, Maxon and other major manufacturers
- Installation of fire extinguisher per DOT regulation
- DOT inspection
- Additional layer of spray on undercoating

This is a list of our more popular options. Because Kentucky is a semi-custom builder, many other ideas or features can be built to your specific needs. We will be happy to review any special requirements to get your job done.

Kentucky – You asked... We listened!